WALTER S. SCOTT, AUCTIONEER

Conditions of Sale

1. ALL BIDS TO BE BY LOT. They are executed free of charge by the Walpole Galleries and the items are bought at the lowest price permitted by competitive bids.

2. The highest bidder to be the buyer; in case of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision will be final. He may also reject any fractional or nominal bid calculated to delay or injuriously affect the sale.

3. Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.

4. GOODS BOUGHT TO BE REMOVED AFTER 9:30 O'CLOCK THE DAY FOLLOWING THE CLOSE OF THE SALE. If not so removed, they will be held at the risk of the purchaser and these Galleries will not be responsible if such goods are lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed. No deliveries will be made during or immediately after the sale, but all bills and goods will be ready at 9:30 o'clock on the day following the sale.

5. TERMS CASH. If accounts are not paid at the close of the sale, or, in the case of absent buyers, when bills are rendered, these Galleries reserve the right to dispose of the goods without notice to the defaulting buyer and all costs of such resale will be charged to the defaulter. This condition is without prejudice to the rights of the Company to enforce the sale contract and collect the amount due without such re-sale at its own option.

6. This catalogue has been compiled by a competent cataloguer, the various lots offered are described with care and accuracy and they will be sold not subject to return.

7. The Walpole Galleries, if requested, will forward purchases at the buyer's risk and expense.

Priced copies of this catalogue at $3.00 each after the sale.

213. Fine Pair of Bronze Carved Cannon. L. 33 ins.
Heavy weight; on rough wood carriages (one wheel damaged).
An unusually interesting pair, presented in the 17th Century by the King of Denmark to the Shah of Persia, with the symbolic Crescent Moon and other carvings. They were returned by the Shah, whose reason for refusing was that the Danish King had sent him cannon carved with the "waning moon"—therefore a bad omen, which he refused to accept, as the Persian moon was always "waxing" or growing greater in strength.
(Illustrated Plate 4) 225-
214. Part of Reindeer Harness from Iceland. L. 19 ins. 3-
A curved reindeer horn, with very interesting crude iron buckles, etc. Probably 16th Century.

292. Very Fine Japanese Dagger with Kodzuka.

Carved silver menuki, guard-band and tip; cord-holder and "throwing knife" slit in carved silver in dragons; the handle of the throwing knife has the same design. Sheath of black lacquer, with gold lacquer crest and dragon design (tip missing), but is not very noticeable, as it is of black lacquered wood. Shark skin grip, cord-wrapped, and with green flat cord.

VERY FINE SHORT SWORD.

(Illustrated Plate 6)

293. Carved Horn Powder Horn of the French and Indian War Period. L. 17 ins.

Double curve, carved with four soldiers in uniform, representing "Froggy," "Parlyvo," "Lobster" and "Bostonnais," carved with map in a lozenge, marked "These be we," "These be carillon," surmounted by a crown, and with English and "Death's Head" flags. At the base, which is set with wood, is carved, "Abial Lewis Bostonnais, His Horn, at Carillon in June of 1759." The tip is incised in lines, indented and grooved in a band of small holes. The horn is grey, with soft green shadings and tip.

Horns of the French and Indian War are very rare, and this is an unusually fine specimen, CONTAINING A MAP AND THE SOLDIERS IN THE VARIOUS UNIFORMS FULL LENGTH.
